COMMUNITY SERVICE

The measles "epidemic" in the State of Rhode Island has made its presence felt on the campus of Salve Regina. Students and faculty of the Nursing Department have contributed their services in Newport and Central Falls to community health clinics to administer measles vaccine to large groups of children, adolescents and young adults - even to some Salve students.

The following students and faculty were those involved at least once in this community service:

WORKSHOP FOR R.N.'S

The first six hour session is scheduled for Monday, March 12 from 9-5 at the Ramada Inn in Seekonk, Massachusetts. Sister Augustine San Souci, Director of the Workshop, listed the following as objectives for the first session:

1. Recognize the impact a Registered Nurse directed QA Program can have on improving nursing care and services in all kinds of delivery settings.
2. Verbalize the professional nurse's accountability to the consumer for "health oriented" quality nursing.
3. Indentify and describe the A.N.A. Model for Quality Assurance in Nursing.
4. Apply the A.N.A. Standards of Practice and Nursing Diagnosis to a QA Program.
5. Develop and write outcome criteria through use of the nominal group process.

FINE ARTS CONCERT

There will be a concert sponsored by The Fine Arts Committee in Ochre Court on Tuesday, March 13 at 8:30 p.m. featuring Bert Lucarelli, oboist, and Thomas Hryniv, pianist. No tickets are required. Donations will be accepted. Come to this evening of sprightly and at times haunting music for oboe with piano accompaniment.

BOATHOUSE ANNOUNCEMENTS

Annie and Lisa will be providing music for your pleasure at The Boathouse Thursday nights. These two old campus favorites are returning with some great new tunes in addition to their old repertoire.

Two great musicians, Keith Burton and Steve Topper, will be performing in the Boathouse on this Friday night. Since space is limited, a 50¢ cover charge will be in effect. Remember Steve Moore? You will not want to miss these guys? They are great!

IRISH CONCERT

The Ancient Order of Hibernians and The Newport Cultural Foundation are sponsoring "A Night of Traditional Irish Music," with Mahem and Clancy internationally known Irish musicians. The concert will be at Rogers High School Auditorium, Thursday, March 15 at 8:30 p.m. Tickets are on sale in three locations on campus:

O'Hare: Faculty Secretaries Office

Ochre Court: Admissions Office and Public Information Office.

ST. PATRICK'S PARTY

A party to kick off the St. Patrick's Weekend is scheduled for Friday, March 16, in the Miley Cafeteria. "Two-way Street" will provide the music and the Boathouse will provide the refreshments. Admission is $1. Student Life Senate members will be selling tickets soon.

RECRUITING DATES

On Friday, March 16 at 2:00 p.m., Ms. Janet Adams will be here from Mid-Maine Medical Center in Waterville, Maine. Ms. Adams has rearranged her schedule so as to be able to visit Salve Regina while she is in Rhode Island.

On Wednesday, March 21, Mrs. Cathleen Naughton and Mrs. Marie Puerini from Medical Personnel Pool will be in O'Hare at 9:30 a.m. Mrs. Naughton is a graduate of SRC.

BLOOD DRIVE

The College Health Services will hold a blood drive in the student lounge of the O'Hare Academic Center on April 2, 1979 from 2 - 5 p.m. We hope the students will show the same enthusiasm and generosity as they did for the last blood drive.
